Become a Walterdalian - Join the Walterdale Family

Have you ever wanted to get involved in theatre, but didn't know where to start? Maybe you want to tread the boards and be a "star", or yearn to design sets, make costumes, be part of a sound or light crew, or simply help out at the coffee bar. All this and more are possible if you become a Walterdale member! Since 1958, Walterdale has offered people of all ages and all walks of life a variety of theatrical experiences.

About Walterdale

Walterdale Theatre Associates is a non-profit society dedicated to making opportunities available in theatre performance and production. With the exception of a part-time administrator, Walterdale is operated entirely by volunteers. Walterdale Theatre is one of the oldest community theatres in Canada, occupying Strathcona Fire Hall No. 1 situated between Wilbert McIntyre Park and the Old Strathcona Farmers' Market in the heart of the Old Strathcona Theatre District. The building, both a recognized Provincial & Municipal Historic Resource, is the oldest fire hall of its type in Edmonton or Calgary.
